YELLOW FEVER.

Latest News from the Stricken Cities of the South.

NEW ORLEANS, September 12.—Yesterday the weather was cloudy, cool and windy. New cases, 263; deaths, 90; of which 22 were children under seven years of age.

Baton Rouge reports, for the twenty-four hours ending at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, new cases, 24; deaths, 3. Total cases to date, 297; deaths, 25. At Grenada yesterday there were four deaths and five new cases.

HOLLY SPRINGS, September 12.—The death list Tuesday and yesterday is 18; new cases, 12. We have no banks; our bankers are dead; no post office; send funds by express. We need doctors, supplies and money.

W. P. HOLLAND,

Chairman Relief Committee.

NASHVILLE, September 12.—One death from yellow fever yesterday. No new cases among the refugees.

MEMPHIS, September 12.—The weather was cool yesterday, which was unfavorable to the sick. The official report of the Board of Health shows 104 deaths, of which 19 were colored, and 65 new cases, of which 12 were colored. The medical corps of the Howard Association report 212 new cases.

To guard against any mishap to the County Undertaker, and to expedite the burial of the pauper dead, President Langstaff of the Howard Association, has ordered 1000 coffins, which will be brought to the city and used as occasion demands.

GALLIPOLIS, Sept. 12.—Within a radius of seven miles of where the plague ship John Porter was moored (the northern boundary of which is within two miles from the city), there is reported to be fifteen to twenty cases of yellow fever, and seven deaths since Sunday morning. Every precaution is being taken to prevent the epidemic getting into the town and the most intense excitement prevails. The ship will be scuttled and sunk.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 12.—We have at this date 3500 sick to provide for, and 10,000 well people to feed. The average increase of cases is 100, and the average deaths 100 per day. There is no sign of an abatement of fever, though the weather has turned cold, and we have hopes that the back of the epidemic has been broken. The total daily expenses of the Howard Association and Citizens' Relief Committee are about $11,000. We have on hand about $55,000—enough for five days. Contributions are coming in at present at the rate of about $7500 per day, which may decrease any moment. If the fever continues one month longer, as is likely, with a gradual abatement in that time, we will need from $150,000 to $200,000, and about 300,000 rations. We also need 25 mattresses, blankets, sheets and pillows every day, to replace those destroyed daily by order of the Board of Health, and on which persons have died. We have been helping, and are still helping, Grenada, Brownville and other cities. Calls from other adjacent points are daily increasing.

The Peabody Substantance Association at New Orleans, on the 11th, issued 26,580 rations on 3,790 requisitions. The Louisiana Association of Veterans of the Mexican War appeal to their comrades for relief. The Governor of Indiana has issued a proclamation, recommending the 13th as a day of fasting and prayer in behalf of the plague stricken South. Chicago on the 10th raised $10,000 by a monster picnic for the sufferers. Her total subscriptions regularly reported amount to $37,838.

The Wenham Ice Company of Boston, has sent fifty car loads of ice to Memphis.

Philadelphia's collections amount to $63,000. The New York Chamber of Commerce on the 11th sent $5000 to New Orleans, $4000 to Memphis and $1,000 to Vicksburg.

A Dishonest Jurymen.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—The trial of Mrs. Hodgson, in progress in the Fourth District Court on a charge of murder by producing an abortion on Mrs. Emma Downes, came to a sudden pause this morning on the production of affidavits by the son and daughter of the prisoner that one of the jurors, S. B. Husselman, had offered to hang the jury for $500. Judge Morrison at once stopped the progress of the trial, and as he had no precedent for Husselman's case, he sent him to jail for ten days and fined him one thousand dollars for contempt in disregarding the general instructions of the Court. A criminal action will be brought against Husselman as once. Husselman is noted in the Directory as secretary of the Country Real Estate Association, but no such organization is known to exist, and it is believed that Husselman himself is the Alpha and Omega of the whole concern. He has recently come prominently into notice in connection with some very seamy transactions involving the transfer of city property for tracts of land in the interior of dubious title and value.

The Dominion officials in British Columbia resist the act depriving them of the voting power.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Russia advises the Servians not to disarm. Marysville has collected $1100 for the yellow fever sufferers.

The Fitz John Porter court martial case has been adjourned to Oct. 1st.

At Dubuque, Iowa, on the 11th, Rarus trotted in 2:23½, 2:20½ and 2:30½.

All the Greek soldiers on furlough have been ordered to join their regiments.

A conspiracy has been discovered in Seville, Spain, to establish a federal republic.

The Massachusetts Prohibitionists have nominated Rev. Dr. Miner for Governor.

The loss by the fire at Portland, Or., on the 10th, will amount to $15,000; insurance, $4000.

The government's separation policy has been condemned by a public meeting at New Westminster, B. C.

General Longstreet has been commissioned revenue agent and assigned to Georgia and Florida.

E. M. Wright, of Chattanooga, has been nominated for Governor by the Republicans of Tennessee.

John Kelley jumped overboard from the Great Republic, on the 7th, on her way to Portland, and was drowned.

The Independent Greenback Convention of Massachusetts met on the 11th and nominated Ben Butler for Governor by a rising vote.

The Great Council of the United States of the Improved Order of Red Men have elected Morris H. Gorham, of Pennsylvania Great Inchoonee.

The Umatilla hostages held by Gen. Howard have given the names of 36 Indians engaged in murders and depredations, who will be punished. The hostages will be liberated.

The Union Pacific officials have reliable information that their trains will soon be robbed by fifteen or twenty desperadoes, and are endeavoring to get the help of the military.

General Miles and an excursion party is reported surrounded in the Yellowstone country by Bannocks and twenty seven of his escort killed. The story is not fully credited.

A frightful colliery explosion occurred on the 11th at Abercrombie, near Newport, Monmouthshire. There were 370 men in the pit, 90 of whom were rescued. It is believed the rest all perished. The mine is still burning and perhaps will have to be flooded. The Maine House stands, so far as known, 65 Republicans and 2 Democrats supporting the Republicans, 21 Democrats and 58 Greenbackers. Five are not reported, two of which are known to be Greenbackers. This makes 61 Republicans to 81 opposition.

HORSE STEALING.

Rattlesnake Jack Arrested on that Delicate Charge.

(Silver State, Sept. 12.)

News reached here yesterday that "Rattlesnake Jack," who desires to be known as a great Indian fighter and scalp-lifter, with two or three kindred spirits, had stolen several head of horses from Pete French and other settlers in the country between Stein mountain and Camp Harney. The gang separated somewhere north of here, one party with some of the stolen horses going, it is supposed, in the direction of Tuscarora, and Jack coming this way. He evaded Winnemucca and disposed of three or four of the stolen horses to cattle men near Rye Patch, and then took the cars for Sacramento. "Montana" got on his track, recovered some of the horses and telegraphed the officers at Sacramento to arrest Jack, who was taken into custody the moment he stepped off the cars.

"Rattlesnake Jack" made his first appearance here about a year ago. He claims to be a nephew of the celebrated Kit Carson, and pretends to understand a dozen Indian dialects. He was at Camp Harney during the late Indian troubles, and was, we believe, arrested at that post for horse stealing. He has four or five Indian scalps, but persons now here will bet their last dime that he never killed the bucks or squaws off whom they were taken.

The Meanest Man.

The Boston Post man was mad when he wrote this: John Jackson, of Illinois, a wealthy man, is also the very meanest man on record, to date. He refused to send aid to his own sister, who was stricken with yellow fever in New Orleans. He was next notified of her death, and he refused to pay the funeral expenses. The girl was buried in a pauper's grave. Hell is altogether too comfortable a place for John Jackson. But when the devil gets him, we hope he will hold him over the coals and let him fricassee slowly.

Funeral of Alexander Austin.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—The funeral of Sandy Austin, this morning, though intended to be strictly private, was attended by several hundred friends. A long line of carriages followed his remains to Lone Mountain.

WANTED—A girl about 14 years of age, to assist in care of child. Apply to Mrs. C. T. Bender, Seminary avenue.

A Dose For Deal.

The Silver State (Democratic) commenting upon an article in the Virginia Chronicle lauding W. E. F. Deal and depreciating Mr. Wren, says:

The Chronicle should not be so sanguine, if it can find no material in the Democratic party stronger than Deal to place against Wren. Deal has a record as a defender of Chinese that will lose him hundreds of votes among the miners and workmen of Nevada. In 1869 he served as Deputy United States District Attorney under Will Campbell, and took a very active part in prosecuting white men for alleged violations of the Burlingame treaty. In this unjust and, as was subsequently shown, unwarranted proceeding, Mr. Deal was backed by the Enterprise, then as now, edited by R. M. Daggett. Workmen have good memories, and remember all the circumstances connected with the prosecution, and deeply regret that the withdrawal of R. M. Daggett from the gubernatorial contest deprives them of the opportunity of voting against him as they certainly will against Deal should he receive the nomination for Congress, regardless of Wren's alleged connection with the railroad companies. In the name and by authority of several workmen of this county, we caution the convention which is to assemble at Carson not to nominate Deal of Virginia city for Congress, unless the members prefer defeat with him to victory with an unobjectionable candidate.

The Union and Central Pacific railroads having asked for further time to consider whether or not they will dispute the constitutionality of the laws affecting them passed at the last session of Congress, French, auditor of railroad accounts, after conference with Schurz, has informed the officers of the companies that he sees no reason for delay, and if the reports demanded of them are not forthcoming, the matter will be placed in the hands of the Attorney-General.

Incest and Infanticide.

KEOKUK, (Iowa) September 11.—A day or two since a young girl, Mary Mefford, living at Hamilton, Illinois, gave birth to a child, of which she says her brother is the father. On the following day the child died, and an investigation developed the fact that it was murdered. The girl and her mother are under arrest.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Don't Forget It.

If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water are more numerous, and are, through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not checked, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Prairie Flower proves itself the great liver panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our druggists, OGDEN & SHOEMAKER. 5-17-18

CLOTHING.—Grand Reopening of the White House, next door to the Postoffice. Having purchased the entire stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishing Goods of Messrs. Cohen & Isaacs, and made a large addition thereto, I am prepared to sell this clothing at lower rates than any merchant in Reno. I respectfully solicit the patronage of the public, and am convinced that on the examination of my stock, and the price at which I sell, that no person who gives me a call will go away empty handed. L. ABRAMS. 5-17-18

At Osburn & Shoemaker's you can buy Cocoa Cream for the hair, at 25c a bottle, Jockey Club hair oil at 25c a bottle, Sun Flower hair oil at 25c a bottle, Bouquet hair oil at 25c a bottle, and Golden Jockey hair oil at 25c a bottle. These beautiful preparations are just received from the East and were never before sold in this market. 5-17-18

I give special attention to Physician's prescriptions, filling them promptly and accurately. Making my own field extracts, elixirs, etc. I propose to fill prescriptions from medicines of known purity and strength, at as little cost to the consumer as possible. QUEER MORALITY.

San Francisco is a very remarkable place in many respects but in none more so than its unreasoning grief for the death of a rich man or one reputed to be rich. Alexander Austin, ex-gambler, ex-dry goods merchant, ex-tax collector and finally stock broker, shoots himself. The city mourns. It is stated on pretty good authority that he had dishonestly made away with something like a quarter of a million of dollars belonging to the city and for which his bondsmen will be liable. The city is wild with indignation at the suggestion, and the more so because it is probably true. Now no matter how nice a man Mr. Austin was, no matter how jolly and good hearted and gentlemanly and liberal, if he stole that money he was a thief. The GAZETTE wouldn't like to say this if it were a San Francisco newspaper. We remember how near a mob came to gutting the Call and Bulletin offices because those journals told the truth about Ralston. The moral ideas of San Francisco are very much mixed—that is plain. A nice lesson it is to the rising generation, to see a whole city weeping because a man of education and intelligence has killed himself for the reason that he fears that the world will know he has failed in an attempt to be a magnificent thief. We do not know for a certainty that Alexander Austin was a thief, but we shall reserve our tears till we know whether he was or not.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Storey county Republican Central Committee yesterday at a special meeting deferred to public opinion to a certain extent, and released the delegates of their own appointing from their pledge to support Batterman. The delegates will, therefore, go to the State Convention unpledged, in a Pickwickian sense. It would have been far better had the central committee kept its finger out of the pie as much as possible, and allowed the people to say what they wanted at the primary polls. The central committee has succeeded in drawing upon itself the suspicion of having put up a job in Batterman's interest, and Batterman is just that much hurt.

Prof. Nichol, of Pittsburgh, who sued for a divorce on the ground of having been deceived about the age of his bride by false hair, cosmetics, etc., has gained his suit and a bill will be granted.—Exchange.

There is a chance to say something mean here about women, but the GAZETTE controls itself and merely advises the verdant Professor to see that the next bride by well shaken before taken. If the curls, and false teeth, and cork calves, and rubber plumpers, and a glass eye, and palpitations fill the circumambient and blushing atmosphere, the Professor had better hold on till he hears from us before doing anything decided.

Colonel Jones, editor of the Macon, (Ga.) Messenger, was cowed by a woman, who took offense at some trivial publication. The Colonel did not turn his right cheek, but took the lash from his assailant's grasp and severely chastised the husband, who was standing by encouraging his wife on.—Ex.

That was right and if the doughty and correct Colonel had laid one or two good licks on the female who elected herself to be a man and a cowardly one for the time being, he would have done well. When a woman forgets that she is a woman, she has no right to expect that other people will remember the fascinating fact.

The almy imp of the Sacramento Be objects to our occasional mention of Deacon Parkinson, because our remarks upon that great journalist are partly in Latin. We have to drop into the classical tongue when we strive to express our admiration of Nevada's pride. English is too new, too meagre, too vulgar. We are brushing up our Greek, and when we have refreshed our memory on Sanscrit we shall, perhaps, be able to tell Verbum Sap just what we think of him.

The energetic manner in which the anti-Bridley part of the Democratic camp of Nevada is gnawing at its own heels is right to see. The Eureka Standard hastens to assure the talented Standard, when but a week ago it was calling an idiot, that Eureka didn't mean anything when it voted against him four to one. Tough!

Those persons who didn't spend $500 and the exertions of fifty men at the primary election on Tuesday to carry the Wright ticket will doubtless be pleased to learn that the natives of Central Africa prize brass much more highly than they do gold. Free transportation will be provided upon application at this office.

Ben. Butler has been nominated for Governor of Massachusetts by the Greenbackers. Ben. is a Workingman at present, and for a humble toiler, is in pretty good circumstances. This is lucky, for if he wants Kearney & Co. to stand in, he will have to pay them.

Is Dennis at a clam-bake, or is he counting up his collections? The almy imp of telegraph operators haven't given us a word about him for nearly a week, and our brain is just festering to hear about him. Dennis, ye devil, stir him up!

Over in Tuscarora the other day, a little girl swallowed a two-bit piece, and the father rushed around frantically till he found a doctor. If it had happened in Eureka the happy parent would have led forth his offspring and set her up for the drinks.

In a moment of gushing confidence the editor of the Austin Reveille thus confesses the highest ambition of his secret soul: "We wish we had a family and were popular enough to get elected to the Legislature."

The San Jose Mercury has entered upon its fourteenth volume and rejoices that it is prosperous. The Mercury is very intelligently edited and its columns are always readable.

Silver for Paper.

New York, September 11.—The World's Washington special says: Treasury officials say that after Monday next, when the paying out of silver dollars without restriction or limitations, exchange for legal tenders will not exceed the $10,000,000 worth of the silver now in the Treasury. The greater part of the silver taken in payment of customs duties and in the purchase of 4-per cent bonds. As an illustration of how far the silver dollar and silver certificates enter into the payment of customs duties, it may be said that the sub-Treasury at San Francisco has thus far issued $5,500,000 in silver certificates, and that $4,500,000 of this issue is now in the sub-Treasury at New York, having been shipped East and used in payment for those duties.

Annie Cook, who kept the noted demi-monde establishment, the Mansion House, has discharged all her female inmates, and is now taking yellow fever patients in her elegantly furnished rooms. Being herself an expert in the management of the disease, she is personally superintending the nursing of all the patients. One, we learn, has already convalesced in that establishment.

Miles Meets the Banlocks.

BREKEN, Mont., Sept. 12.—By a carrier-extra from Captain Browning, we learn that Sunday last General Miles had a battle with the Banlocks on Soda Butte creek, near Clark's Fork. Thirteen Indians were killed and the whole party, thirty-seven in all, captured. Miles' loss was Captain Andrew S. Barnett killed, and one soldier mortally wounded. Miles' force numbered twenty-one men and a few scouts.

A Delicate Appetite.

Boston Globe: The following is the bill ordered at one of the popular mountain hotels by a "sick" lady, a day or two ago: Chicken broth, roast sirloin beef, queen fritters, potatoes, boiled, sliced tomatoes, baked cup custard, wine sauce, baked sweet apples, watermelon. Fact!
